

DEFENSE RESTS.

Attempt to Impeach the Reputation of Capt. Ewen For Truth and Veracity.

SOME 25 WITNESSES EXAMINED.

Ewen Paid His Debts Promptly, Never Drank, Never Gambled and Attended Church Regularly.

Commonwealth Preparing to Swear Out Warrants For the Arrest of Tickle Bach and John L. Noble on Charge of Perjury.

Cynthiana, Ky., Aug. 7.—Thursday afternoon Capt. B. B. Golden, one of the attorneys for the defense, announced that their side rested as to evidence in chief.

In the case of commonwealth of Kentucky against Curtis Jett and Tom White, on trial here for the killing of James B. Marcum, the day was principally taken up in the impeaching of the morality and truthfulness of Capt. B. J. Ewen, one of the main witnesses for the prosecution. Some 25 witnesses from his own county and other witnesses from Powell county, where he resided until he moved to Jackson, some ten years ago, testified that his morality was bad as well as his reputation for truthfulness. At the same time some of them testified that he was a church goer, a constant attendant on Sunday-school, that he never drank whisky or gambled at all.

Many of them were confused on cross-examination, especially those from Breathitt county, by the fact of their being strongly allied to the Hargis faction in Breathitt county, and attempting to prove what was said to them about Ewen's character by men who had a criminal record. The best impeaching evidence was offered by a number of citizens of Powell county, including among their number the county judge, the sheriff and others who had the appearance of being well to do men who testified to Ewen's bad reputation as to morality and truthfulness among his neighbors, although each of these witnesses as far as their personal opinion was concerned testified without exception that he paid his debts promptly, never drank, never gambled and attended church regularly while residing among them.

Ed Odear, of Lexington, the official stenographer in the first trial at Jackson, testified in contradiction to Capt. Ewen as to Tom White brushing by Ewen when coming out of the courthouse door at Jackson. Joe Bruner, who testified for the defense in the case, was called by the prosecution in rebuttal and said that Ewen did tell him that he knew who killed Marcum. This testimony was in corroboration of Ewen. A. T. Pettit also corroborated this statement of Bruner's.

"Tickle" Jim Bach, who testified several days ago for the defense, was contradicted by the witnesses Russell, for the prosecution, and also by Cy Holland. Tickle swore he had seen the killing several days ago, and these witnesses say that Tickle told them that he did not see the killing and that he was glad he did not see it.

The commonwealth is making preparations to swear out a warrant for the arrest of Tickle Bach and John L. Noble, called "Rat Ankle." They will be charged with false swearing, and evidence was adduced to the jury Thursday evening to show that they did not swear falsely in this case. The testimony of Russell is corroborated by Abe Short, a merchant at Jackson, who says that Tickle Jim Bach told him he was glad that he did not see the killing. "Tickle" Jim was called to the stand and admitted that he asked Russell who had killed Marcum, near the bridge, and this admission was made in the presence of Cy Holland.

DEMAND A NEW VENIRE.

Powers' Attorneys Claim Only Democrats Were Summoned.

Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 7.—When court convened Thursday the attorneys for Caleb Powers stated to the trial judge that they desired to be heard on a motion to dismiss the entire venire of Bourbon county citizens called for jury service, charging the deputy sheriffs had not performed their duty impartially. Judge Robbins heard the matter away from the partially accepted jurors.

The affidavits in support of the motion are by Caleb Powers and Thomas C. Whalley, a Bourbon county republican. Both affidavits charge that of 90 veniremen summoned all but two are democrats. They charge that William Rogers and Zach D. Lusby, the deputy sheriffs who summoned the venire, went to Paris and there consulted Jim Burk and Joe Williams, a deputy sheriff and constable respectively, of Bourbon county, and, together with them, summoned the veniremen, purposely passing by republicans to get democrats.

The court, in overruling the motion for a new venire, said: "The sheriff is as much an officer of the court as the judge, and it is presumed will do his duty under his oath. To let the affidavit of a defendant set his work at naught would be expressing no confidence in his work as an officer. Who this other affiant is I do not know, but to have sworn as he did he must have accompanied the sheriff through the county. If you should dismiss a man, reputable and qualified for jury service because of his politics, we could never get a jury to try this or any other case in the commonwealth. I will overrule the motion."

The attorneys for Powers challenged Jurors J. C. Howard, Thos. Padgett, J. F. Hazelwood, J. W. Doty, G. W. Falconer, L. W. Hagan and W. S. Williams. This left five jurors finally accepted by both sides.

J. S. Munson, L. J. Mitchell, Dennis Hanley and Tom Redmond were accepted, and court took a recess, the first 100 veniremen having been exhausted.

PIUS' CORONATION.

Great Preparations Are Being Made For Ceremony Which Takes Place Sunday.

FUNCTION CONSUMES FIVE HOURS.

Throne of St. Peter, Which Pius Will Occupy, Will Be Surmounted by a High Canopy.

Pope Will Be Received on the Threshold of the Basilica By Cardinal Rampolla, Who Will Address the Formal Greetings.

Rome, Aug. 7.—The attention of Rome is now centered on the solemn coronation ceremony which is to occur on Sunday and for which great preparations are making. The throne of St. Peter, which Pius X. will occupy, will be surmounted by a canopy 40 feet high. The function will consume five hours. The pope has informed the vatican officers that he wishes to be received on the threshold of the basilica by Cardinal Rampolla, who, as archpriest of the church, will address the formal greetings to him. At the conclusion of the ceremony, the pope will confer his blessing upon the people, but it has not yet been decided whether he will do so inside the church or from the balcony looking out on the piazza, where many hoped he would bestow his benediction on the day of his election. It is said that Pius is favorable to the latter plan but that the influence of the vatican officers is against it on the ground that it might be interrupted as a recognition of the present state of affairs in Italy. The holding of the coronation ceremonies in St. Peter's itself represents a concession, as in the case of Leo it occurred in the Sistine chapel. It is expected that 60,000 tickets will be issued for the event.

In the consistories to be held Monday and Thursday next, the pope will confer the red hat on Cardinals Ajuti, Taliani, Katschaler and Herrero y Espinosa, who were raised from the purple on June 25, but who have not received these symbols of rank because of the illness and death of Leo. It is believed that the Spanish cardinal Herrero will not be able to be present at the coronation ceremonies.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPH.

A Successful Test Made of the Overland System.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 7.—A practical test overland of the De Forest wireless telegraph system was made Thursday. Signals were received from Buffalo, a distance of 180 miles, direct, three-fourths of this distance being overland. The tests were conducted personally by Lee De Forest, who came to Cleveland for that purpose. The experiments lasted several hours, the communications received consisting of cipher and wireless code messages. No attempt was made at sending replies, the sending apparatus not being as yet properly adjusted. It is said that the messages received Thursday were sent a longer distance overland than has heretofore been accomplished.

Grand Chief—J. Frank Stewart, Ashland.

Grand Vice Chief—Robt. M. Bagby, Grayson.

STRIKES IN RUSSIA

Quarter Million of Men Are Affected in a Vast Industrial Area in Southern Part.

PRICES OF NECESSARIES RISING.

The Fallen Men Were Trampled Under the Horses' Hoofs—Six Hundred Strikers Injured and About a Dozen Killed.

London, Aug. 7.—The Daily Mail's Nikolaiff correspondent, under date of August 2, fully confirms the Times correspondent's accounts of strikes in South Russia. The correspondent says that a quarter of a million men are affected and that simultaneously strikes occurred over a vast industrial area. He says that the amount of studied organization and well concealed preparations was unprecedented in the troubled annals of Russian labor.

Prices of the necessities of life are rising by leaps and bounds. Groups of men who assembled last Saturday with the intention of holding a meeting were driven into a solid mass by 500 Cossacks, backed by two lines of infantry with fixed bayonets. About 2,000 strikers being thus enclosed by a double cordon.

The Cossacks rode through them, striking right and left with heavy whips, the fallen men being trampled under the horses' feet.

When the living mass had been thoroughly kneaded to the governor's will, continues the correspondent, numerous men were arrested as suspected agitators. The infantry then marched off and the strikers scattered in a dozen directions with Cossacks at their heels. It is reported that 600 strikers were more or less seriously injured and that from six to a dozen succumbed. The whole affair is a typical piece of administrative savagery. The extraordinary feature of the movement at Odessa is that the police and gendarmes belonging to one depot threatened to throw off their uniforms and risk all the terrors of insubordination unless the miserable pittance of 11 to 14 pence, which they are allowed daily, was increased and the hours of labor reduced. Siberia is losing its terrors even for Russian policemen.

The epidemic of incendiarism is spreading through Russia. Scarcely a day passes without news of conflagrations. At Baku alone, the destruction has been colossal. Tens of millions of gallons of naphtha have been burned. In 24 of the largest towns the damage from fire during the past month is estimated at $30,000,000 to $35,000,000. The object of most of the fires is to get insurance money. Many of the incendiaries are Jews and the insurance companies in some cases have raised premiums 50 per cent. Public opinion in Odessa is entirely on the side of the striking sailors and strikers. A wealthy company which has been employing men for years has only paid sailors at the rate of 28 shillings a month.

THE political complexion of the jury can have nothing to do with the hue of Caleb Powers' guilt, which is as mid-night blackness.

CALB POWERS doesn't appear to be so anxious now for a new trial as he was some time ago. Thacker, the Fleming County murderer, got one trial too many.

At the reception tendered Wednesday to Gov. Beckham and others by Col. Milton Young, of "McGrathiana," near Lexington, Col. Breckinridge was one of the speakers. In view of the fact that Col. Young is a Republican, and that Col. Breckinridge has opposed the Democratic nominees for several years, the latter's remarks are significant. Col. Breckinridge alluded to the troubles that had afflicted the State in the past. He said that much had been done that ought not to have been done and much said that might have been better left unsaid. He gave credit to those who differed with him for being honest and sincere in their views and asked that the same consideration be extended to him. He thought that a better day was coming for Kentucky, a day when law should be supreme and the right of life and liberty be more absolutely respected. For himself he turned his back upon the past, and looked forward to the future, and to the triumph of the great principles of Democracy. The sentiment was cheered to the echo.

Lee Walker, of Glen Springs, has sued the Adams Express Company for $250. The plaintiff states that in November, 1902, he shipped from Wooster, O., in care of the defendants, to Vanceburg, an English setter of the value of $250, but same never arrived at Vanceburg.

Charley Sroufe and Wife Hart. Under the heading: "Private car damaged and notables hurt," the Denver (Col.) Post publishes the following special from Tucson, Arizona, under date of July 31st: "The private car of Superintendent C. C. Sroufe, of the Southern-Pacific Tucson-Yuma division, having on board Sroufe, Epes Randolph, General Manager of the Pacific Electric Railway of Los Angeles; Senator Eugene S. Ives and General Manager McFarland, of the Cananea Railroad, collided to-day with a yard engine in the Naco yards. Mrs. Sroufe was seriously injured in the back and spine. Sroufe was badly cut on the head. The remainder of the party escaped without injury."

Mr. Sroufe formerly lived at Dover.

The Republicans will meet at Vanceburg Aug. 26th to nominate candidates for Circuit Judge, Commonwealth's Attorney and State Senator. The county conventions will be held Aug. 22nd.

Not only were there severe pains in my back, but also other evidences of a disturbed condition of the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills came to our knowledge and Mr. Burgoyne went to J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store, corner of West Second and Market streets and got a box. Fifty Years' Partnership.

[Dover News.]

A partnership between landlord and tenant, which has existed for more than fifty years, will terminate with the present crop.

About fifty years ago John Haggerty moved on the farm of Robert Terhune, near Tuckahoe, and lived there during the remainder of his life. He died Nov. 18, 1893, at the age of eighty-two years.

Mr. Haggerty was an invalid several years previous to his death, and the farming business was continued between Mr. J. E. Bouldin, son-in-law of Mr. Terhune, and Matt Haggerty, a son of John Haggerty.

Strange to say, during all these years there has never been an article of agreement signed between the parties, each relying on the honesty and fairness of the other. While we would not recommend this way of doing business, it surely speaks well for all concerned.

The Coming Clothes Shop For Men and Boys!

The way we intend to conduct this shop of modern clothes for men and boys will be along the lines of applied christianity, when it comes to dealing man to man. As to the class of merchandise we will continue to guarantee absolute satisfaction or your money back. In this way we will have no one who can ever say but what they got full worth for their money. As to opening shop on Sunday, we will gladly do it in case of actual necessity, such as death and extreme cases. This shop shall represent our best brains, energy and thought, will give the highest expression of style at all times in everything pertaining to men's wear. Promptness of promises will be kept with the public. Good cheer will ever pervade the atmosphere of this clothes shop. Why should we not continue to grow?

THE REASON WHY.

The question is often asked, why is it that people go, time after time, and night after night, to listen to the concerts rendered by DeBaugh and his 20th Century Band. The solution is easy. In the first place, it is the bright, sparkling music of the day which appeals to and pleases the great masses of the music-loving people.

This band, as directed by DeBaugh, renders this style of music with a dash and brilliancy which has never been equaled by any other band. It is also a generally conceded fact that DeBaugh's is undoubtedly the greatest novelty band in the world, introducing more innovation and original ideas than all the other concert bands combined. DeBaugh possesses the happy faculty of knowing what the public wants, and giving it to them.

Will Play at Lexington Elks Fair August 10-15.

INDIANS AT ORANGEBURG.

A Large Tribe Instituted Last Night. Wyandotte Braves Capture the Town.

Niagara Tribe No. 96, Improved Order of Red Men, was formally instituted last night by Grand Chief of Records Henry W. Ray, acting as Deputy Great Sachem of the State. The secret work of the order was exemplified by the degree team of Wyandotte Tribe. The new tribe starts out with a membership of about fifty-five, numbering many of the best citizens of that part of the county.

About seventy-five members of Wyandotte Tribe went out last evening, accompanied by the Indian Band, who entertained the hospitable people of Orangeburg with an open-air concert, from the lawn of Mr. Sedden's home. At dark the Degree Team entered the village with a grand display of fire works, attracting the people for miles around. At a late hour, a tempting luncheon was served by the good women of the 'burg. The Maysville visitors returned between midnight and day break.

Enquirer: "There may be a change in the plans of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association, which will materially change the demands that will be made of Congress for the improvement of the Ohio river. For some time past the river interests of this section of the country and those that are interested in having the Ohio made a nine-foot waterway are not satisfied with the stand that Pittsburgh business men are taking on this important question. In view of the little encouragement that Pittsburgh is giving this movement it is possible that Congress will be asked only for sufficient funds to improve the Ohio from the mouth of the Kanawha to Louisville, Ky. This would only necessitate the expenditure of $12,000,000 more, as against about $40,000,000 for the improvement of the river from Davis Island Dam at Pittsburgh."

Mr. P. A. Williams, the ever courteous and obliging manager of the Western Union office, this city, has declined the offer of the position as manager of the Huntsville (Ala.) office, and also the office at Greenville, Miss., either of which is a more lucrative position than the one he now holds. Mr. Williams, after taking all things into consideration, prefers to remain here, where during his five years residence he has formed many pleasant acquaintances, all of whom will be glad to know he is to remain in old Maysville.

We desire to express our appreciation of the many acts of kindness of neighbors and friends during our recent sad bereavement. To those who sent flowers we are thankful.
